TOUR DIFFICULTY

EASY MEDIUM HARD

Discover the elegant cities of Pisa and Lucca. Your private driver will pick you up at at your ship and take you on the picturesque ride to nearby Pisa where your private guide will be expecting you. Explore the Pisa square of Piazza dei Miracoli, see its Baptistry and climb the legendary Leaning Tower of Pisa, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

After a visit inside the Pisa Duomo to learn about its history, your driver will take you to nearby Lucca, one of Tuscany's lesser-known gems. After lunch at a selected trattoria, you will tour the town of Lucca which during the Longobard rule in the 11th century was made the capital of Italy. Lucca was famous for its sturdy walls that still encircle the town and its Romanesque architecture. Stroll along its famous ramparts to enjoy magnificent views of the town and surrounding countryside, learn about its precious architecture and the individual spirit of its inhabitants. Enjoy seeing Piazza dell 'Anfiteatro, Lucca Cathedral and more, and finish with a slice of 'buccellato,' Lucca's signature cake!

Along with some time for shopping, you'll fall under the spell of this enchanting town.

Throughout our Lucca & Pisa shore excursions we'll try and use scenic back roads so that you can fully appreciate the countryside of Tuscany prior to returning to the port of Livorno and your cruise ship.
